

Throwing the Perfect Halloween Party

Ahh, Fall. Who doesn't _____ that time of year when the weather gets _____ and the _____ start to change... Halloween is a time for carving _____, _____ candy, and throwing a/an _____ Halloween party. Halloween parties are certainly _____, but preparing for them can be stressful. However, as long as you remain cool and _____, your _____ will be something everyone will _____. First of all, you must dress _____. Your costume must be _____ enough to ensure you are the _____ of the party. Classic costumes such as vampires and _____ are always a hit, and keep in mind that comfort is _____. This will be a _____ evening, and you don't want your _____ to be sore later. Knowing who to invite is also _____. Ideally, you want someone _____ like _____ . If that person can't _____, _____ someone like _____ isn't a bad idea, but just make sure they don't _____ too much like last year. Don't let them have more than _____ so you don't wind up spending the entire party holding their _____ back as they _____ all over the _____. Keep in mind that you're the host, and other _____ need your _____ too. As long as you are friendly and _____, and you provide plenty of _____ music and some delicious _____, your guests will _____ you. If you follow these tips, your _____ will _____ come back in December for your _____ party.

